Introduction

One of the great advantages of having a Gmail account is that you have a huge amount of storage, on a mail system that you can access from virtually anywhere.

Along with the ability to send/receive your email through your Gmail account, you can also install the GoogleTalk client, which give you the ability to have Instant Messaging on your BlackBerry.

The GoogleTalk for the BlackBerry handheld is an extremely powerful, and featured, Instant Messaging client.

This guide will show you how to install the GoogleTalk application onto your BlackBerry handheld device.
